1. Council News

The QSL cards still seem to be an issue. Peter V51BP has the QSL Bureau under his wing and has the bureau well sorted. Please contact Peter to find out if he has cards for you, we can honestly not expect Peter to phone everyone on his dime to announce cards.

We are busy with a list that will be published on the website and updated regularly and will announce this as soon as the service goes live.

If anyone knows the whereabouts of ex V51AS please let him know that there are lots of cards for him and he must arrange with his couriers to have them picked up or they will go back to the senders.

If you have a special event call and expect QSL mail please inform Peter so he knows otherwise the cards go under unknown and will only be sorted out sporadically.
